

VICE-PRESIDENT SHERMAN IS ACCUSED BY SENATOR GORE IN THE OKLAHOMA LAND GRAFTS

SENSATION TODAY FOLLOWS QUESTION

U.S. Senator Curtis of Kansas Also "Interested" in the Three Million Dollar Deal

WAKE ASKS AND GETS FACTS

Names Jacob Hamon as the Briber in Sensational Case in which Names Have Been Held

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Aug. 4.—Sen. Thos. Gore today named Vice-president Sherman as one of the men interested in the McMurray Indian land contracts, through which it was intended to put through a $3,000,000 deal and in connection with which the blind senator alleges that he was offered a bribe of $50,000 to lead his support to measures to put the deal through. Jacob Hamon, a former republican committeeman from Oklahoma was named as the man who had offered Gore the bribe. The money was offered him in Washington May 6, Gore said, and when he refused to accept the $50,000 bribe, it was raised to $55,000. Senator Gore's first charges were made on the floor of the senate in Washington and no names were mentioned.

Today Gore told his story in full. Tells Whole Story

Gore went down the line of the men he had implicated by suggestion, specifying "the other United States Senator interested" as Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas.

The member of the house also interested, was named as Bird McGuire, congressman from Oklahoma, he testified.

"The man from my home town who offered the bribe," was named as Jacob Hamon of Lawton.

Here he stated that Hamon had also told him there was an official higher up interested in the deal. Chairman Burke, of the investigating committee, pressed Gore to name this official and the senator said it was Vice-president Sherman. He then produced a newspaper clipping showing that Sherman and Curtis had called on the president recommending the approval of the contracts.

Insisted on Story

Gore hesitated before naming any of the men, but Burke insisted on a full story and Gore talked freely. He did not go into details as to how McGuire and Curtis were interested but indicated that he had other evidence which caused him to believe Hamon's statements were true. He testified Hamon came to his office and offered the bribe.

"Hamon said there was a lot of money in these contracts," he said, "and if they were approved there was enough for two. McMurray will be willing to pay $50,000 and I believe that if I bear hard enough on him he would be willing to make it $55,000."

"Hamon then suggested that a different scale of fees be arranged

CRIPPEN DENIES GUILT OF MURDER

Inspector Dew Admits This Much, but "Backs Up" on Intimation Prisoner Has Confessed

SERIOUS OPERATION HINTED

Rumor Out that Crippen Performed Illegally on Belle Elmore, Causing Death

QUEBEC, Aug. 4.—"I am not seeking to compel Dr. Crippen to make a confession. I am not anxious to secure a confession from him. He has said that he is not guilty of murder."

Inspector Dew of Scotland Yard, made this statement today just before leaving Quebec for Niagara Falls on a sight-seeing trip.

The opinion is prevalent here, however, that Dew would scarcely leave his prisoner at this time unless he had received some satisfactory statement from him.

The English law is very strict on the subject of confessions. It absolutely forbids the making public of any confession obtained from a prisoner. Any officer revealing the fact of a confession could be prosecuted.

It is thought that this legal situation may be responsible for Dew's change of attitude since yesterday when he allowed the inference to go out that Crippen had told him the full story of Belle Elmore's death. There are those who still insist, despite Dew's denial of today, he has obtained from his prisoner a full statement of the circumstances surrounding the tragedy.

Confession is Doubtful

LONDON, Aug. 4.—Despite the reiteration today by Scotland Yard that Dr. H. H. Crippen, under arrest in Quebec on a charge of wife murder, has not confessed to Inspector Dew and a positive statement by Arthur Newton, counsel for Crippen to the same effect, the question as to whether he confessed is still unsettled.

Lawyer Newton's denial is considered significant.

"So far as I see," Newton said, "no evidence exists that a murder has been committed."

This statement tends to bear out a long story in today's Chronicle from its Quebec correspondent in which the latter declares positively that Crippen told Dew that he killed his wife but that it was not a case of murder. The inference is made that Crippen's wife died from the effects of an illegal operation, performed by her dentist-husband.

No More Evidence

It was given out today that no additional evidence has been found since the discovery of the body in the earth under the floor of the cellar of Crippen's house in Hilldrop Crescent.

Detective Sergeant Mitchell and Matrons Foster and Stone of the Holloway jail left today for Liverpool where they will take the steamer Lake Manitoba for Quebec to assist Inspector Dew in bringing back Dr. Crippen and Miss Leneve.

Mitchell is armed with the depositions of a number of witnesses and other documents that are believed to be ample to secure the prisoner's surrender from the Canadian authorities.

IOWA INSURGENTS "BUMP" MR. TAFT

He Is Commended Only for His "Good Intentions" and Tariff and Work Go Unendorsed

PROGRESSIVES IN MAJORITY

Dramatic Scenes Enacted when Old Regime Is Turned Down in Convention

DES MOINES, Iowa, Aug. 4.—Upon the most progressive platform adopted in any state, a platform endorsing President Taft only for good intentions and lauding Senators Dolliver and Cummins for their fight in securing changes in the railroad and postal savings bank bills, the Iowa insurgents dominated the state convention yesterday. The insurgent majority rejected the minority report of the committee on resolutions read by former Congressman W. P. Hepburn, which lauded Taft and the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill but refused to remove from the state central committee the five standpat members, as some of the militant insurgents wished.

There was a dramatic scene in the convention hall last night when the two reports from the resolutions committee were read.

Geo. M. Curtis presented the majority report which the insurgents cheered, while the standpat element remained silent. When Col. Hepburn read his minority report endorsing Taft, the younger element thought it was humorous and waves of laughter swept the convention and Chairman Dolliver was unable to keep order.

The insurgent platform was adopted by a majority of 244.

A. M. Doyce of Hancock county was nominated state superintendent on the second ballot. Judges Davis and Deemer were renominated by acclamation for the supreme bench.

Kansas Victory Grows

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 4.—The wave of insurgency which swept Kansas at the republican primary elections Tuesday was even more disastrous to the hopes of Speaker Cannon and the regulars than shown by the early returns. So heated was the contest and so heavy the vote that today complete returns have not been received even on gubernatorial and congressional candidates.

However, complete returns from three-fourths of the counties have increased Gov. Stubbs, majority to 27,500 votes with indications that will go to 40,000. Wagstaff carried only four counties.

Likewise the majorities by which four progressive congressmen were nominated increased with the receipt of returns from rural districts while the majority for Anthony, standpatter, in the First, has been cut down and the progressives claim that an official count will be necessary to fix the winner.

Congressional Results

The results of the congressional nominations and the majorities compiled from returns now in follows: First district, D. R. Anthony, standpatter, 698; Second district, A. C. Mitchell, progressive, 200; Third district, Fred S. Jackson, progressive, 4,000; Fifth district, R. R. Rees, progressive, 2,500; Sixth district, I. D. Young, progressive, 1,000; Seventh district, E. H. Madison, progressive, no opposition; Eighth district, Victor Murdock, progressive, no opposition.

Candidates for railroad commissioner, treasurer and supreme court justices are up in the air, each nomination being claimed by three men.

That Geo. H. Hodges was nominated for governor by the democrats is known but the congressional slate is still in doubt in the districts where there were contests.

ACCUSED OF THEFT LEAPS INTO LAKE

Milwaukee Man Dives from Steamer a Mile from Shore and May Be Dead

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 4.—Accused of picking the pocket of Albert Whitney, 2438 Grand avenue, Chicago, Cyrus Taylor, who is said to be the son of a well known Milwaukee road official in Chicago, leaped overboard from the steamer Indiana as it was nearing Milwaukee at 4 o'clock this morning and swam for the shore, nearly one mile away. It is not known whether he reached shore or drowned.

Taylor was surprised by Whitney because of his previous actions, and when Captain M. J. Nolan approached the man with questions he became indignant. Finally when the captain informed him that he would have to be searched, Taylor turned and said: "Not yet, goodbye!"

In the semi-darkness it was possible to observe the man only a few yards. The Indiana is fitted with wireless and a message was at once dispatched to the police, giving a description of Taylor and telling of his action.

Captain Inger Olsen, life saving crew, was notified of the case also by wireless, and he searched the lake in the vicinity of where the Windy City man plunged into the water, but without success.

The crew later returned to the station for grappling paraphernalia and then resumed its search, which was unsuccessful.

SAYS BALLINGER WILL NEVER QUIT

WASHINGTON, W. C., Aug. 4.—A close friend of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger said today that Ballinger had no intention of being the "goat" for anybody, and that it may be set down as certain that he will fight to the limit "the effort of politicians to force him out of office."

"I have known him intimately for a long time, and I know that when it comes to such a proposition as Senator Crane is alleged to have put up to him Ballinger would not be able to see the party phase of it," he continued. "He would not see why he should be unjustly sacrificed for the sake of someone else."

ADMINISTRATION IS CALLED TREACHERY

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Rudolph Spreckels, of California, here on his way west, declares that the present administration of Mr. Taft has shown rank treachery toward Theodore Roosevelt and the people of the United States.

"It is an administration wholly governed by the great interests and will not stand the strain to which it will be placed," declared Spreckels. "The insurgent movement will sweep the boards at the next election and those that follow until the great interests are jarred to the core."

Spreckels went to Madison, Wis., today to confer with Senator La Follette.

CONGRESS ENTAILS LOSS OF MANHOOD

Ohio Man Quits Rather than "Bow and Scrape" to Dinky Officials to Gain Any Favors

IRONTON, Ohio, Aug. 4.—Declaring his disgust because it was necessary to "bow and scrape to all the powers up to the president," in order to obtain the slightest concession at Washington, Congressman A. R. Johnson, today reiterated his intention to quit congress.

"My duties as congressman to my constituents entailed almost the loss of one's manhood and principles, for in order to get even the slightest legislative or appointive concession at Washington, it was necessary to bow and scrape to all the powers up to the president. I am thoroughly disgusted with the whole business and am of the opinion that any other man would be if he went there."

Johnson has served one term and was recently nominated for a second but asked the tenth district congressional committee to put Robert Switzer, of Gallipolis on the ticket in his stead.

MADRIZ SENDS FRIENDLY ENVOYS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 4.—Dr. Sebastian Salinas, one of the envoys sent by President Madriz of Nicaragua to the United States to lay his case before the state department, issued a statement today defending the Madriz administration and reiterating its "friendliness" for the United States.

Dr. Salinas will not communicate with Acting Secretary of State Wilson or any of the department officials until the arrival of Dr. Modesto Barrios.

The apparent mission of the envoys is to attempt to counteract the impression that Madriz is hostile to the United States and that he is being aided by former President Zelaya. They probably will express to the state department the willingness of the Madriz faction to adhere to a course of action to be outlined by the United States.

Acting Secretary Wilson will receive the envoys in an informal manner as access to the state department has never been denied the representative of either faction in Nicaragua.

WON'T CONSOLIDATE PYTHIAN RITUAL

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 4.—The report of the committee on consolidating some of the ritual of the Rathbone Sisters with the ritual of the Pythian Sisters was made at this morning's session of the Pythian Sisters. The report which is against the consolidation was adopted.

Two years ago the Pythian Sisters and the Rathbone Sisters were consolidated and the new organization was known as the Pythian Sisters and the ritual of the old Pythian Sisters was used. For some time the women who belonged to the old Rathbone Sisters organizations have wanted part of their ritual incorporated in the new ritual of the consolidated organization but this morning's action makes this impossible.

Geo. M. Hanson of Calais, Me., was elected supreme chancellor at this morning's session of the Knights of Pythias.

Thos. J. Carling of Georgia was elected supreme vice chancellor this afternoon.

DISCHARGED JAP MAY BE SLAYER

Whole Family Murdered and Bodies Burned, and Police Seek Oriental Servant Boy

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Aug. 4.—"The finding of human bones on the Starbuck ranch yesterday has revealed the most fiendish murder in the history of California. Three human beings—Enoch Kendall, his wife and son Thomas, have been murdered. Their flesh scraped from their bones with a knife and fed to their hogs. I believe that the murderer then remained long enough on the premises to burn the bones of his victims in the kitchen stove of the Kendall house. I am unwilling to discuss the identity of the murderer yet but I will say that we have strong evidence pointing to one man."

This was the statement made to the United Press today by Assistant District Attorney G. W. Hoyle of Sonoma county, who yesterday discovered two heaps of human bones on the Starbuck ranch, near here. Hoyle, assisted by Sheriff Smith, continued their search for evidence at the ranch today. Smith remained on watch at the ranch all last night in the hope that the murderer or murderers might return.

The theory advanced in some quarters that one of the Kendalls killed the other and then fled is scouted by the police and some declare they are certain that the bones found are those of three human beings and not two.

A Japanese boy formerly employed by the Kendalls is being sought, as it is reported that he recently quarrelled with Kendall and was beaten and shot at. A general round up of all Japanese suspects in the county is in progress.

Table Was "Set"

Assistant District Attorney Hoyle and Sheriff Smith found the bones late yesterday when they went to the Starbuck ranch to investigate the disappearance of the Kendalls. The two men found everything in order in the Kendall home. The table in the dining room had been set and some food cooked but left untouched, indicating that the family vanished suddenly.

Bodies Destroyed

On opening the kitchen stove, Hoyle discovered small fragments of bones among the ashes and then found a trail of ashes leading from the stove to a small garden in the rear. In the garden two piles of bones were found. All were badly charred and were immediately pronounced to be those of a human being. Hoyle believes the three Kendalls were murdered, their bodies cut up into small bits and the flesh burned away in the kitchen stove.

Yamuchi, the Japanese boy, is said by Mrs. Starbuck, owner of the ranch, to have been driven away by the Kendalls a few days before the family vanished.

BROWNE MUST NOW STAND TRIAL

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Judge Kersten today overruled the motion to quash the indictment against Lee O'Neil Browne, democratic minority leader of the Illinois legislature, charged with bribery in the election of Lorimer. He denied all points raised by counsel to prevent Browne from being tried in Cook county, the second time. Browne at once entered a plea of not guilty and the selection of the jurors was begun.

Bonilla's Recruits Said to be in Control Following Well-Timed Uprising Today

AMERICANS ARE ENDANGERED

Italian Consul Sends for a Gunboat; Fighting will Soon Give Bonilla Control

PUERTO CORTES, Spanish Honduras, Aug. 4.—Fighting and revolutionary demonstrations of the most serious nature have broken out in many parts of Honduras. Americans fled to the United States consulate at Tegucigalpa, seeking protection, after a violent uprising of a score of soldiers when the flag of Italy was torn down and an Italian killed. The Duke of Scylla, the Italian representative, enraged at such action, has called his government to send a warship to protect the country's interests.

Country in Revolution. The entire republic is in the grip of the revolution, uprisings having broken out in every town of any size in the country.

American interests are believed to be in danger, as there is a bitter anti-American sentiment among the loyalists. The consulate at Ceiba is filled with refugees.

The revolution was planned and directed by Manuel A. Bonilla, former president of the republic, who was deposed by Zelaya when the latter was president of Nicaragua. President Davila was then placed in office and two years ago Bonilla started his plans for a general uprising. Arms and ammunition have been received at various times by him and when the signal was given yesterday throughout the republic his followers made a concerted attack.

Government Troops Vanish

It is not believed the fighting will last long, as most of the government troops vanished when the revolutionists struck. Bonilla is reported to be nearly to Tegucigalpa with 3,000 men, and is not expected to meet with great opposition. Lee Christmas, an American, long known as a promoter of Latin American revolutions, is in command of Bonilla's forces, backed by a corps of American gunners and sharpshooters.

The government has placed a strict censorship on all outgoing cablegrams and it is not yet known how many towns Bonilla has taken. Reports say that several Americans have been arrested as revolutionists, but confirmation is lacking.

LOCAL RIFLEMEN ARE MAKING GOOD

Three La Crosse Men Hold Places on the High Team at Camp Douglas This Week

(By Allen C. Werner.)
CAMP DOUGLAS, Wis., Aug. 4.—Three La Crosse riflemen showed up well yesterday. Klinge (B), Miller (M), and Storkerson (B), being in seventh, eighth and ninth places respectively, on the high team. Berger of B company was on the state team again in eighth place. The La Crosse men are rapidly rounding into form and much is expected from them.

The scores made in yesterday's firing were excellent, considering the high wind, which blew most of the day. Yesterday's firing was 200, 300 and 500 rapid fire and two skirmish runs. Today's shooting is the heaviest work of the week and the result will probably decide the teams.

Forest and brush fires threatened the reservation for a time but a change in the wind saved the property from damage. Following are the scores made yesterday:

LA FOLLETTE SENDS CONGRATULATIONS

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 4.—United States Senator J. L. Bristow of Salina, Kan., and Gov. E. R. Stubbs wired Senator R. M. La Follette yesterday assuring him of the completeness of the insurgent victory in that state. According to their telegrams, the insurgents elected all of their congressmen except two and defeated such standpatters as Calderhead, Miller, Scott and Reeder, and that strong progressives were elected in their place.

Senator La Follette, who is on his farm near this city, wired congratulations to Bristow and Stubbs upon the result of the fight, as follows:

"J. L. Bristow,
"Salina, Kan.
"Kansas primary results due to brilliant campaign of yourself and associates are an inspiration to Progressives everywhere. I congratulate you."
"R. M. LA FOLLETTE."

The four Kansas standpat congressmen whose defeat is assured were the four whose records were printed in the "roll call" of La Follette's magazine.

ANXIOUS ABOUT BOB'S POSITION

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 4.—In an open letter published in the Madison State Journal today, Prof. Rasmus B. Anderson, former United States minister to Denmark, and editor of "Amerika," a Norwegian weekly newspaper, asks Senator Robert M. La Follette to explain his position with reference to county option.

Friends of the senator here declare he is not likely to make his views on the county option question known to the public, largely because he considers that it is a purely state issue which can have nothing to do with his candidacy for the United States senatorial nomination. However, workers of the opposing faction are making considerable capital out of the fact that two gubernatorial candidates are said to claim the favor of La Follette, which each stands on opposite sides of the county option question.

GLOVES TO REPLACE PISTOLS IN DUELS

PARIS, Aug. 4.—The substitution of the boxing gloves for the fells and pistol as the French duelling weapon of the future is said today to be the intention of War Minister Brun. Brun's idea is to establish a boxing school in the military academy at Samer and to insist hereafter that when any of the military student wants his honor avenged he shall get into the ring and go about it as Jack Johnson. In the new order of things, the combatant who first smears his opponent's nose all over his face, blackens his "lamp," gives him a cauliflower ear or a mouthful of loose teeth will be declared the winner.

ANDERSON MAKES PLATFORM KNOWN

Opponent of Congressman Tawney Denounces the Payne-Aldrich Tariff Bill

ALBERT LEA, Minn., Aug. 4.—Sidney A. Anderson, insurgent candidate for congress against James A. Tawney, has given out his platform.

"I hereby announce myself a candidate," he said, "for the republican nomination for representative of the First Congressional district of Minnesota and, believing that the voters are entitled to know the principles of candidates seeking their franchise, I make the following declaration of principles and pledges:

"I believe in a representative form of government and that the 'system' called 'Cannonomism' is a menace to a government by the people and a source of unequal distribution of the burden of taxation and of discrimination in favor of big business in national legislation. I will not vote for Cannon for Speaker, and am in favor of committee appointments being made by the house.

"I am in favor of an immediate revision of the tariff downward to the extent of the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad. I believe the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill is a discrimination in the interests of the east against the west, and I favor a more equitable adjustment of the tariff schedules so that the farming interests shall not bear an unjust proportion of the tax burden.

"I believe our national resources are the birthright of the people, and, therefore, favor the conservation policies of Theodore Roosevelt and the preservation of the natural resources for the people.

"I favor a liberal appropriation by congress for the detection of land and timber thieves and persons who, by fraud, have enriched themselves at the public expense.

"Believing that the issue in this campaign is whether the people or the 'interests' shall rule this nation, and that the rights and interests of the people should be fully protected against the constant encroachments of corporate and special interests, I submit to every right thinking voter this declaration of principles and so-

S. S. S. CURES RHEUMATISM

The cause of Rheumatism is an excess of uric acid in the blood. The uric impurity gets into the circulation by absorption, usually because of constipation, weak kidneys, and other systemic irregularities. Then the blood becomes weak and sour and irritating urate particles are formed in this vital fluid. When in this impure condition the blood can not furnish the necessary amount of nourishment to the different muscles, tendons, nerves and ligaments of the body. Instead it constantly steepens them in the briny acid matter, and the gritty, urate particles collect in the joints, which causes the pains, aches and soreness of Rheumatism. Liniments, plasters, etc. may relieve the acute pain of an attack of Rheumatism, but such treatment does not reach the blood and therefore can have no permanent good effect. There is but one way to cure Rheumatism and that is to purify the blood of the acid poison. S. S. S. goes into the circulation and attacks the disease at its head. It removes the cause for the reason that it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It filters out every trace of the sour, inflammatory matter, cools the acid-heated circulation, adds richness and nourishment to the blood and permanently cures Rheumatism. S. S. S. does not patch up, it cures permanently. S. S. S. is especially valuable as a remedy for Rheumatism because it does not contain a particle of harmful mineral in any form. It is purely vegetable, a fine tonic as well as blood purifier. Book on Rheumatism sent free to all who write.

Everybody Loves A Good Story

Cosmopolitan Magazine has a nation-wide reputation as the one magazine where you can find the best fiction. If you want a laugh story, Cosmopolitan always has one for you. If you want a tear story, you will find one in every issue of the Cosmopolitan.

You find these "best" stories in Cosmopolitan, because we have secured the best writers for you.

You know Alfred Henry Lewis's "Wolfville Stories." They are the ones that made him famous from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and indeed even in Europe. He is continuing these "Wolfville Stories" in the Cosmopolitan.

You remember George Randolph Chester, who, in the form of fiction, warned you against the thousand and one "get-rich-quick" schemes that clever, plausible tricksters are trying to catch the unwary with. Six more of these have been written for the Cosmopolitan. They are interesting and fascinating as fiction and absolutely accurate as to the facts they contain.

Jacques Futrelle is writing a new series of adventure stories, creating a new detective character far better than Sir A. Conan Doyle's famous Sherlock Holmes. In dash and exciting interest this Futrelle detective and the parts he plays make stories that are absolutely breathless.

Other fiction writers have also been secured to write for the Cosmopolitan:

O. Henry,
Henry Rowland,
Agnes and Edgerton Castle, B. G. Wodehouse,
Emory Pottle,
Porter Emerson Brown,
Sir Gilbert Parker,
Jack London,

AN OMINOUS SHADOW
There is little comfort for the Taft administration and its reactionary allies in the result of the republican primary election in Kansas. Though the state was invaded by Speaker Cannon and the administration has pursued in Kansas the same course that it has followed in Wisconsin in using the federal patronage to "discipline" the insurgents and place the stamp of regularity upon the reactionaries, the progressives virtually have swept the board clean.

Though the returns are yet somewhat meager they indicate quite plainly that the next congressional delegation will be solidly progressive. It is possible that the reactionaries may pull through one of their candidates at the primary only to meet with defeat at the election in November. Gov. Stubbs and the progressive candidates for state office have been nominated by large majorities. In fact, the primary has assumed the proportions of an insurgent landslide.

When the Aldrich-Payne bill was placed upon its passage in the house of representatives only two of the eight representatives in the Kansas delegation voted against it. There were six reactionaries and two progressives—six "regulars" and two insurgents. In the primary no reactionaries could be found to stand against either Murdock or Madison, the in-surgeons, so marked was the approval which their constituents gave to their opposition to the breach of faith with the people in revising the tariff upward instead of downward. In the six districts represented by the "regulars" there were opposing candidates. If any of the incumbents has pulled through it has been by a very narrow margin, while there is a likelihood that every one of them has met with defeat.

When the Kansas returns are considered it is not strange that Mr. Taft has been seized with a great fear and has abandoned his proposed stump speaking tour. For every political speech that he has made since his administration has been placed on trial, has been a nail in the Reactionary coffin. The very campaign material upon which the Cannonites and Aldrichites have depended has contributed to their undoing. The Taft Winona speech which was designed to reconcile the people to the Payne-Aldrich act and Standpatism, has turned them more strongly against it.

What has happened in Kansas will be repeated in Wisconsin. In Wisconsin the Reactionaries have a small representation in the congressional delegation, but if it were composed entirely of "Taft Republicans" there would be none left to tell the tale after the September primary. For the people have been aroused to a real and concrete issue. It is not merely a conflict between high-sounding phrases, where tweedledee is differentiated from tweedledum, but a clear-cut issue between tariff extortion and duties reduced to a basis to eliminate the monopoly increment. It is an issue where the forces of Privilege in its various forms are on one side and the forces that are opposed to exploiting the many for the profit of the few by act of congress or the legislature are arrayed on the opposing side. When such an issue can be made clear—when the line can be clearly drawn—there never need be question as to the result if the people shall be aroused to its real significance.—Milwaukee Journal.

THE FORUM'S BIG EDITION
On Wednesday, July 27th, two days before the publication of The Tribune's big edition, The Forum, leading newspaper of Fargo, North Dakota, published what is perhaps one of the greatest newspaper editions which ever came from the press in that state. The edition comprises sixty pages and sets forth in splendid style the advantages of this great state, the history of its development and the enterprise which is rapidly making it one of the leading states in the union. The Forum's special edition is a great credit to the prosperous city where it is published, and is a valuable advertisement for the state. The issue is profusely illustrated and contains valuable reading matter of historical and timely interest.

FROM TAWNEY'S PROTEGE
La Crosse and the La Crosse Tribune were most admirably placed before the public in a great 112 page issue published by that enterprising paper on July 29th. The Tribune has much to commend it from a business standpoint, but editorially, the paper is a political sneak, and unreliable as can be.—Hokah (Minn.) Chief.

Taft is said to have canceled his speaking engagements in the west because he don't want to have insurgent victories attributed to the effect of his speeches.

But in spite of the hissing stand-patters, it reminded "the party of Lincoln, Grant, McKinley and Roosevelt."

It looks as if Tawney will have a hard time keeping his "people's friend" mask on straight this fall.

"Perhaps if Uncle Joe had smoked Kansas corn tassels he might have killed the hoodoo."

The more candid standpatters say they expected a wallop in Kansas.

Cupid in the Parks
The park with night's mantle is shrouded.
The stars sweetly twinkle above.
And the benches secluded are crowded.
For ah, 'tis an evening for Love!
And Josie and James are happy.
As uninterrupted they spark,
For a glimmer of blue
Seems to signal, "Woo, woo!"
Mr. Cupid's on guard in the park.

Two by two through the deep paths they ramble,
He's and She's holding hands,
clasping arms,
But wherever the loving pairs amble,
They're free from all fears and alarms,
For a glint of blue light through the bushes
Assures their fond hearts with its spark,
And they cuddle and woo,
"Oose own ducky is oo?"
While Cupid's on guard in the park.

And Cupid, though old and decrepit,
Moves spryly and stealthily round.
For his heart is still young and intrepid,
And the sound of each kiss makes it bound,
And he too was once gay and youthful,
So he sighs as his aged eyes spark:
"Sure, I'm past it myself
And my heart's on the shelf,
But you bet I'll keep guard in the park!"

Practical "Matching."
What the little girl with the three-pence in half-pennies wanted was some red ribbon of a particular shade for her mother. She knew the shade, but she couldn't explain it, and all she could say was it wasn't that, no, nor that, nor that, it was deeper than that, and not so deep as that and so on.

The mission was looking hopeless, when suddenly she dared from the shop, and seized a passing gentleman by the hand.
"Will you please come into this shop with me?" she asked innocently.
"Certainly, my chickabiddy," replied the gentleman, "if I can be of any use. What is it?"
The little girl replied not, but led the wondering stranger to the counter.
"There, miss!" she said triumphantly. "Mother wants some ribbon the color of this gentleman's nose!"

And Letty Lane laughed, put out her white hand, the one without the cigarette, and said: "Haven't got that brand on board—so sorry! Will a cocktail do? All sorts in bottles. Higgins, fix Mr. Blair a Martini."

As the dresser rose from her stooping position, the rest of Letty Lane's dressing-room unfolded out of the mist and smoke. On a sofa covered with lace pillows Blair saw a man sitting, smoking as well. He was tall and had a dark mustache. It was Prince Poniatowsky, whom Dan had already met at the Galorey shoot.

"Prince Poniatowsky," Miss Anne presented him. "Mr. Blair of Blairtown, Montana. Say, Frederick, give me my cap, will you? It is over by your side. I've got to hustle."

The man, without moving, picked up a small red cap with a single plume, from the sofa at his side. In another second Letty Lane had placed it on her head of yellow hair, real yellow hair and not a doubt of it, like sunshine—not the color one gets from inside bottles. Her arms, her hands flashed with rings, priceless flashes, and the little spears pricked Dan like sharp needles.

"It's the nicest ever!" she was saying. "How on earth did you get in here, though? Have you bought the Gaiety Theater? I'm the most exclusive girl on the stage. Who let you in?"

Her accent was English, and even that put her from him. As he looked at her he couldn't understand how he had ever recognized her. If he had waited for another act he wouldn't have believed the likeness, real. The girl he remembered had both softened and hardened; the round features were gone, but all the angles were gone as well. Her eyes were as gray as the seas; she was painted and her lids were darkened. Seen close, she was not so divine as on the stage, but there was still a more thrilling charm about the fact that she was real.

"To think of any one from Montana being here tonight! Staying very long, Mr. Blair?" Between each sentence she directed Higgins, who was getting her into her bodice. "And how do you like Mandalay? Isn't it great?"

She addressed herself to Dan, but she smiled on both the men with extreme brilliance.

"You bet your life," he responded. "I should think it was great." Poniatowsky rose indolently. He had not looked toward the newcomer, but had, on the other hand, followed every detail of Miss Lane's dressing.

"Better take your scarf, Letty. Hand it to Miss Lane," he directed Higgins. "It is so damned drafty in these beastly wings."

He drew his watch out, gathered up his long coat, flung it over his arm and picked up his opera hat which lay folded on Letty Lane's dressing-table.

The call page for the third time summoned "Miss La—ne, Miss La—ne," and she took the scarf Higgins handed her and ran it through her hands, still beaming on Dan.

"Come in to see me at the Savoy on any day at two-thirty except on matinee days."

"Put on your scarf," Poniatowsky, taking it from her hands, laid it across her white shoulders, and she passed out between the two men, light as a bird, smiling, nodding, followed by the prince and the boy from Montana. The crowds began to fill the lately empty wings—dancers, chorus girls with their rustling gowns. Letty Lane said to Dan:

"Guess you'll like my solo in this act all right—it's the best thing in Mandalay. Now go along, and clap me hard."

It gave him a new pleasure, for she had spoken to him in real American fashion with the swift mimicry that showed her talent. Dan went slowly back to his party. As he took his seat by the duchess she said to him:

"You went out to see Letty Lane. Do you know her?"

"Know her?" And as Dan answered, the sound of his own voice was queer to him, and his face flushed hotly. "Lord, yes. She used to be in the drug store in Blairtown. Sold soda-water to me when we were both kids. Whoever would have thought that she had that in her!"

He nodded toward the stage, for Letty Lane had come on. "She sang in our church, too, but not for long."

"Who was with her in the dressing-room?" the duchess asked. Dan didn't answer. He was looking at Letty Lane. She had come to dance for the rajah and in her arms she held four white doves; each dove had a coral thread around its throat. It was a number that made her famous, The Dove Song. Set free, the birds flew about her, circling her blond head, surmounted by the small coral-colored cap. The

"I thought it advisable to use a little formal patronage on first acquaintance, and I said, very impressively:

"A boy must take advantage of his opportunities in the business world. In that way he profits by hard work. A boy who can make a study of that principle is a good office boy, and that is the kind of a boy I want here. And any boy who knows enough to keep a place in this office will learn enough in a year to make his fortune."

"Yes, sir," said the boy.

"Pleased with the good effect of my lecture, I went to lunch. When I returned I found the office deserted. On the desk was a note written in a boyish scrawl. It proved how successful I had been as an instructor—he certainly lost no time in seizing his opportunity. It read: "Dear Sir: I must quit work because a man came in after you went out and give me a ticket to the baseball. Yours truly, J. Boggs."—Washington Post.

The message was transmitted to the "cub" telegrapher. As written, it read: "Foundation under freight house needs attention at once." As delivered to the general foreman the dispatch contained a rather startling bit of information. It read: "Found lion under freight house. Needs attention at once."

In reply the following was sent: "Feed lion and notify live stock agent."—Judge's Library.

Dr. Flexner on Whiskers
Dr. Simon Flexner, chief of the Rockefeller Institute, referred, at dinner in Philadelphia, to the increasing number of clean shaven doctors.

"It is cleaner, safer, to be clean shaven," he said. "Certainly, so far as physicians are concerned, there was more truth than poetry in the dialogue of the two little boys on the street corner.

"Don't you hate to have your face washed?" said the first little boy.

"Oh, don't I, though?" the other answered. "You bet, when I grow up, I'll wear full whiskers."—Detroit Free Press.

doves settled on her shoulders, and pecked at her lips.

"Was it Poniatowsky?" the duchess repeated.

And Dan told her a meaningless lie. "I didn't meet any one there."

And with satisfaction the duchess said:

"Then she has thrown him over, too. He was the latest and the richest. She is horribly extravagant. No man is rich enough for her, they say. Poniatowsky isn't a gold mine."

The doves had flown away to the wings and been gathered up by the Indian servants. The actress on the stage began her Indian cradle song. She came, distinctly turning toward the box party. She had never sung like this in London before. There was a freshness in her voice, a quality in her gesture, a pathos and a sweetness that delighted her audience. They fairly clamored for her, waved and called and recalled. Dan stood motionless, his eyes fastened on her, his heart rocked by the song. He didn't want any one to speak to him. He wished that none of them would breathe, and nearly as absorbed as was he, no one did speak.

CHAPTER V. At the Carlton.

There are certain natures to whom each appearance of evil, each form of delinquency is a fresh surprise. They are born simple, in the sweet sense of the word, and they go down to old age never of the world, although in a sense worldly. If Dan Blair's eyes were somewhat opened at twenty-two, he had yet the bloom on his soul. He was no fool, but his ideals stood up each on his pedestal and ready to appear one by one to him as the scenes of his life shifted and the different curtains rose. He had been trained in finance from his boyhood and he was a born financier. Money was his natural element; he could go far in it. But woman! He was one of those manly creatures—a knight—to whom each woman is a sacred thing: a dove, a crystal-clear soul, made to cherish and to protect, made to be spoiled. And in Dan were all the qualities that go to make up the unselfish, tender, foolish, and often unhappy American husband. These were some of the other things he had inherited from his father, Blair, senior, had married his first love, and whereas his boy had been trained to know money and its value, how to keep it and spend it, to save it and to make it, he had been taught nothing at all about woman. He had never been taught to distrust women, never been warned against them; he had been taught nothing but his father's memory of his mother, and the result was that he worshiped the sex and wondered at the mystery.

AN OLD FASHIONED STYLE REVIVED

Nothing more gracefully feminine than the fichu has ever been devised to woman's dress, and the quaint fichu as well as the poke bonnet calls up memories of dainty belles of those gallant days between the revolution and the rebellion. The new fichus are made of fine net, like the old time ones, with frilled edges and long tab fronts to be held at the bust with a loosely tied knot, a big cameo brooch, or, best of all, a natural rose set in its own leaves. The fichu may be adjusted at the throat in the most becoming way and the V-shaped opening may be long and narrow, or rather broad and high as in the illustration.

COMPLAINT MADE OF DIRTY ALLEYS

Residents of that portion of the city where the alleys have been brick paved complain that despite the fact they were compelled to put in the brick alley pavement, the city now fails to enforce the ordinance of cleanliness, and that these alleys are allowed to fill with piles of refuse and filth. It is likely the matter will be taken up with the city officials. Although a White Wing goes through the alleys in question every day, the sweeper cannot be expected to dispose of the great piles of refuse which are permitted to accumulate.

STATE FAIR TO EXCEL ALL OTHERS

Evidently the Wisconsin State Fair to be held in Milwaukee September 2-6 will be "bigger and better" than ever.

A new machinery pavilion, 350 by 130, is completed; new speed barns, a swine judging amphitheater and an additional toilet are being built at an expense of some $50,000; all are substantial, up-to-date buildings. More than $50,000 is offered in cash prizes to exhibitors and contestants and there will be special attractions in variety and extent to suit all.

A Satisfying Food.

Appetite is Nature's signal for fuel and repairs

Healthy appetite calls for the simple food elements that supply the natural requirements.

Healthy appetite is satisfied when the proper kind and amount of food is taken into the body at stated intervals. But the wiles of the modern chef and caterer have created in most of us a false and often unnatural appetite which leads into all the different degrees of indigestion, dyspepsia, etc.—food insanity.

Grape-Nuts

is a satisfying food—it is composed of the natural elements to satisfy the natural appetite and restore order in the digestive machinery which may have been thrown out of gear by improper though often "fashionable" foods.

The crisp, fir, "nutty" granules of Grape-Nuts make honest mastication necessary. Its wholesome flavour makes it appetizing, and the albumens, carbohydrates and Potassium Phosphate from the whole wheat and barley, makes it a satisfying food—both to the sense of taste and to the body needs.

Ten days' trial will convince any one that

KILLED BY TRAIN AT MINNEAPOLIS

Melvin Remen, Local Boy, Is Fatally Injured Coupling Freight Cars Last Night

DIED HALF AN HOUR LATER

Taken to Hospital where the End Came; Former Call Boy was Brakeman on River Division

Melvin Remen, aged 19 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Remen, Stevensville, Wis., a few miles north of this city, was fatally injured while coupling two cars at Minneapolis about 7:30 o'clock last night and died at one of the hospitals there about half an hour later. The body will be brought to this city this evening.

No details of the accident have been received here. It is stated that the train on which Mr. Remen was a brakeman broke at Minneapolis and that he had gone between the cars to shut off the air when the cars came together, crushing him. Another story is to the effect that he was coupling the engine onto the cars when he was pinched with the coupling irons which crushed him terribly.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pederson, 1522 Avon street, with whom the young man had been making his home, were notified of the accident by telephone and received a telegram about half an hour later that the injured boy had died. Mr. Peterson left today for Minneapolis and will bring the body home this evening.

The boy's parents arrived last night as soon as they had been informed of the death.

Mr. Remen was 19 years of age and is survived by his parents, three brothers, two sisters and two uncles, Mr. Pederson and Ed Knudson, 1527 Avon street.

He had for several months been employed by the Milwaukee road as call boy on the north side. Later he had received a promotion to the position of brakeman, which position he held until his untimely death.

No funeral arrangements have been announced.

It's Finer and Better Than Powder, They Say

"If you want a really and truly good complexion beautifier," writes Amy Lester in Fashion Helps, "try the latest New York idea. It is home-made and dries so quickly you can put on your gloves immediately after applying—something hitherto unheard of in face lotions."

"Get from your druggist two ounces of amaranol, in the original 2 oz. package, put into a pint of warm water, shake the bottle thoroughly and let stand over night. When applied to face, forehead and hands it gives a smooth and delicate texture to the skin and does away altogether with the greasy appearance that is so difficult for many to overcome."

"An application of amaranol is different from any other artificial aid to beauty; it is dainty and delicate and can not be detected—seems most 'natural'—and longer withstands attacks of wind, dust, soot and smoke."

FREIGHT TRAFFIC HELD UP 3 HOURS

For three hours on Tuesday afternoon traffic on the Milwaukee & St. Paul road between Winona and La Crosse was suspended to permit construction gangs to move a bridge to a new location on the double track line. The suspension was timed so that it did not interfere with passenger travel but only held up freight trains, travel being resumed before the evening passenger trains reached this section of the road. The suspension was between 1 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway company has completed the securing of land for the right of way for its new line through Bangor, determined upon in connection with the laying of the double track.

INJURED IN FALL FROM COAL SHED

August Burroughs Hurts a Shoulder Yesterday; Able to Go Home After Treatment

August Burroughs, employed by the Milwaukee railroad on the North side as a coal shoveler, was painfully injured and bruised about 5 o'clock yesterday when he fell from the coal shed to the ground, a distance of about fifteen feet, striking on his shoulder. It was thought that the man had been fatally hurt, but today he is about to be about his home, suffering only pains from the shoulder which he bruised and from the general shaking up which he received.

How the accident happened none of the workmen were able to tell. He was picked up by workmen and a hurry call was put in for the ambulance and Dr. Egan, who ordered the man to a local hospital as soon as he arrived on the scene. Quick time was made to the hospital where it was found that no bones were broken and that the man was but slightly injured. His shoulder, which struck the ground first, was badly bruised, but not seriously. He was able to leave the institution after a few hours to go to his home where he is today resting easily.

PROFIT BY OTHERS' EXPERIENCE

Gray Hair Restored

My hair was getting quite gray and falling out rapidly and I was troubled with a terrible itching of the scalp. My head was full of dandruff, which fell upon my clothes and kept me continually brushing it off. While on a visit to Rochester I heard of your Sage and Sulphur for the hair. I got a bottle and used it. A few applications relieved the itching, my hair stopped falling out and gradually came back to its natural color. It is now a nice dark brown color, soft, glossy and pliable. Several of my friends want to use it, and I want to know what you will charge me for six bottles of it.

MISS E. A. ROSS, Sharon, Mercer Co., Pa.

Grew Hair on a Bald Head

For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is fairly covered and keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.

T. PAUL WILL
GUARD TEDDY

President will Be Closely Watched by Police when He Speaks Next Friday

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 4.—When Theodore Roosevelt arrives in St. Paul on September 5th, to speak at the second National Conservation Congress, he will be guarded by the police as carefully as he would be if he were still president. Every precaution will be taken to see that he is fully protected from the crowd that will be near him all the time during his stay in the city.

As president, Col. Roosevelt always was under the eyes of at least four secret service men whenever he was surrounded by a crowd. He didn't like the idea of being guarded and used to try to avoid it, but the keen-eyed sleuths stuck closely to him and were ever alert for his safety. Now that he is a private citizen, he does not have this bodyguard and it falls to the lot of the police of the cities he visits to furnish proper protection.

Following a conference with members of the local committee on arrangements, Chief of Police John J. O'Connor of St. Paul began working on a plan which, when perfected, will result in Col. Roosevelt being under the care of the guardians of the law from the minute he steps into St. Paul until the minute he leaves the city. The best men on the city's force will be on hand all the time. They will not be in evidence as they will be in citizen's clothes, but it will be their duty to see that there is a clear passage for the former president. These precautions are not taken with any thought of danger of attack on Col. Roosevelt, who is a favorite in St. Paul, but there are always people in great crowds who want to shake the hand of the former president. There are others who would have a word or two with him on some subject or other. Should he stop ten seconds with each of these, there would be little time left for him to speak and attend the functions planned for him.

Upon his arrival in St. Paul, Col. Roosevelt will be met at the Union Station by Governor Eberhart, as many of the governors of other states as have arrived, cabinet members, Gifford Pinchot, the reception committee of the National Conservation Congress and the welcoming committee, composed of members of St. Paul's commercial and civic organizations.

UNION STATEMENT IS CALLED UNFAIR

Management of Segelke-Kohlhaus Company Says Mechanics were Not Paid "$7.50 a Week"

The statement on the banners floated by the striking woodworkers yesterday afternoon during their parade, was misleading and unfair according to the officials of the Segelke & Kohlhaus Manufacturing Co., and the company intimates that it was made to create sympathy for the strikers.

In defense the company has prepared a statement regarding the accusation that "Seven Fifty is too little for a Mechanic to Raise a Family On."

Following is the statement: "If the statement which decorated the day employed by the strikers, namely, '$7.50 per week is too little for a mechanic to raise a family on' was intended as an abstract statement of fact we have nothing to say. We agree with it. But if it was intended as an argument in support of the position taken by the strikers and in order to deceive others by implying that we are paying mechanics who have families to support only $7.50 a week, which seems to have been its only purpose, it was and is untrue and dishonest. It is in fact so palpably false that it must fail of its purpose without any denial on our part. In order that the public may understand the situation, however, we wish to say that there is no mechanic employed in our factory who is not earning more than $7.50 a week and the wages paid by us in all departments of our factory compare favorably with the wages paid by similar factories in other cities.

"Our pay roll shows that all mechanics are receiving from $13.50 to $20.00 per week and the average wage paid in our factory (not including teamsters and yard men but including boys and apprentices, who number about 25) is practically $13 a week. Every man in our employ or who left our employ knows this to be the fact and we do not believe that these men, if left to their own devices and free from outside influences, would make a statement which seems to have been knowingly made to create a false impression and deceive the public."

SCHOOL CENSUS SHOWS DECREASE

Comparisons Made with the Figures of a Year Ago Show a Falling Off of 580

The work of taking the school census in La Crosse has been completed by W. W. Scott and his assistants, but the figures show a falling off of 580 over those of a year ago. A canvass of four wards was made after it was found that the count would be short, but this did not change the original returns as turned in by the enumerators.

The returns show there are 4,525 boys and 4,799 girls of school age in the city, a total of 9,324. The total last year was 9,904.

The report shows the following number of boys and girls between 4 and 20 years of age in each ward:

SEES BATTLE FLAG AFTER 46 YEARS

Ebb Watson, who Enlisted in Civil War at La Crosse, Goes to Madison to See Banner

After an absence of 46 years Ebb Watson of Greenwood, Clark county, has gone to Madison to see the old battle flag under whose folds he marched all during the civil war as a member of the 37th Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry. He was a resident of Hokah, Minn., when the war broke out, and enlisted at La Crosse, in Company E of the 37th Wisconsin, going to Madison where the Wisconsin troops were mobilized. He went to the front and had never been there since until yesterday.

Mr. Watson recently wrote Gov. Davidson for information about his regimental flag, and Private Secretary Munson replied that the old flag was still there and in good condition. Mr. Watson went to the historical library building to see probably for the last time the stars and stripes that meant so much to him in the stirring days of a half century ago.

The old veteran was in La Crosse when "Brick" Pomeroy built the old opera house here. Pomeroy then conducted the La Crosse Democrat. Mr. Watson retired from farming some time ago, infirmities of age making it necessary. He has just visited relatives and old comrades at the Waukegan and Milwaukee soldiers' homes and will go from Madison to La Crosse, and to the Minnesota soldiers' home at Minnehaha.

NO INTERPRETER FOR CHINESE MUTE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 4.—Yung Kwai, of the Chinese legation is confronted with the almost hopeless task of finding an interpreter for a Chinese deaf mute who has been designated by his government to attend the international congress for the deaf and dumb to be held at Colorado Springs next month.

Li Yung Yew, Chinese consul at San Francisco, will be the official interpreter for China, but as Li Yung Yew is not a deaf mute and cannot use the Chinese sign language he will be of no use to the mute representative of the yellow race, who is coming to America to participate in the proceedings of the congress. He is only one of a number of foreign delegates who will be at Colorado Springs at the invitation of the United States. The others, however, will be able to address the convention through interpreters of one kind or another but the lone Chinese will probably be able to do nothing more than appear at the gathering and watch in silence the events that transpire.

Unless some one comes to the rescue of Yung Kwai and finds an interpreter who knows Chinese sign language the Chinese delegate will be unable to tell the assembled delegates what is being done for the deaf and dumb in his own country. Yung Kwai today appealed to the state department for aid and the department has joined the search.

It is rumored there is an American woman, once a delegate to a similar congress in China, who speaks Chinese fluently and uses the sign language with facility but she has not yet been found.

BLITZ and BLATZ

Blitz—I'm up amongst it! Mrs. Blitz told me to bring a Bathing Cap along home, and I was at all hardware, grocery, and confection stores in town, and can't find it.

Blatz—It's a wonder you didn't go to a butcher also, or a carpenter. Blitz, you are with rapidness getting feeble in the mind. Didn't we yesterday stand in the front of Druggist Beyschlag's window on 503 Main street, and look at the bathing caps displaying there? They were marked 25c, 50c, and 75c, and you asked me yet what they were for? Did you forget that so soon already?

Blitz—By Chimney Christmas, that was so! Blatz, you came just in time to save me trouble at home, because Mrs. Blitz expects to go bathing this afternoon, and must have the cap. Yes, yes, now to Beyschlag's! Come along, I buy the cigars, you know he sells that fine No. "41" 5 center also!

A dock fire at the old Trow dock

JOURNALIST POWER BEHIND THRONE

Hammann, who 17 Years Ago was Obscure Writer, Next to Kaiser
in Power

BERLIN, Aug. 4.—Despite the assumption of office on Tuesday by Herr Von Kiderlen-Waechter the new secretary of state for foreign affairs, the real power in Germany's foreign policy will continue to be an ex-newspaper man, Privy Coun-ciller Hammann, now the senior member of the permanent staff of the foreign office.

Hammann, who is a man of the highest academic education, and possess the degree of doctor of laws,
was an obscure newspaper man 17
years ago when he attracted the attention of the imperial chancellery of that time, Gen. Caprivi, by a pamphlet on the best methods of combating the growth of socialism in Germany. Gen. Caprivi was so impressed with this article that he appointed Hammann to control the press department of the German foreign office.

"The Man Behind"
This department is for the purpose of enabling Germany to keep a close grip on both the German and foreign press. Hammann saw in his new work the opportunity for power and in the 17 years that he has held the post he has grown in-
to a position of influence second only to that of the kaiser himself. He is the "man behind the scenes" in all of Germany's political moves.

It is an open secret that Ham-mann brought about the withdrawal of Baron Schoen, who preceded Waechter as foreign secretary and virtually forced the elevation of Kiderlen-Waechter to this post. The latter was in the disfavor of the kaiser, who indeed had not spoken to him for 16 years. Hammann, however, was able to bring about his appointment because of the tremendous influence he wields in both the German and foreign press and it goes without saying that Hammann's influence over the foreign secretary
is most potent.

In order that the public might be deceived as to just how much more the contracts would call for. He also told me that the fifty thousand
was to be in cold, clean cash, no
checks were to be passed and that it would not be traced to anyone who would be injured.

"I let Hamon talk on because I wanted to get all the information I could on this."

"Gore Told La Follette
I went to La Follette and other senators," Gore continued, "and told them what had occurred. Following this W. B. Johnson, and other Indians who were in Washington,
were sent back to Oklahoma, and F.
M. Sterrett, gave a telegram to another Indian to be sent to parties in Washington, urging the approval of the McMurray contracts."

"The plan seemed to be general
and telegrams poured into Washington from Indians of the Choctaw
and Chickasaw nations."

"Most of them seemed to be addressed to Richard C. Adams, a Washington lobbyist."

"All urged legislation that would approve McMurray's contracts."

Implicates Sherman

Gore declared that National Committeeman Hamon had stated that
besides Congressman Bird McGuire
of Oklahoma and Curtis there was an official "higher up" interested in these contracts.

Chairman Burke pressed Senator
Gore to name this official and Gore declared it was Vice President Sherman.

He then produced a newspaper
clipping to show that Sherman and Curtis had called on the president
recommending the approval of the contracts.

The Man Gore Accuses

Hamon, accused by Gore, is 37
years old, was born in Kansas City,
and educated at the Kansas university. He is a lawyer and in 1907 was made chairman of the republican central committee of Oklahoma, and Indian territory after years of service as a republican politician. Gore explained during his testimony that it would have been absurd for congress to sanction the McMurray contract which called for a ten per cent fee as the government had already guaranteed to sell the land for the Indians without any expense to them.

The land involved in the McMurray contracts included 450,000 acres
in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations. The mineral deposits there are valued at $160,000,000, according to geological survey.

GANS MAY NEVER LEAVE CHICAGO

frequent administrations of oxygen,
Joe Gans, former lightweight champion pugilist, arrived here at noon
today on his way to his old home in Baltimore to die.

It is doubtful if Gans will ever leave Chicago alive. Gans was carried on a stretcher to his former wife's home. He was accompanied by his present wife and both women
viewed with each other and his friends
in providing comforts for the trip.

DENIES FISH ARE DYING IN SLOUGHS

Capt. Stroesser of the U. S.
Hatcheries Says Landlocked Waters Are Deep Enough

Capt. Stroesser, in charge of the U. S. Fish Hatchery station at North
La Crosse maintains that the agitation about fish being killed in thousands by the low water is without foundation.

During a conference with Congressman J. J. Esch he stated that he had made a thorough examination of the river in this vicinity and found but little evidence of fish dying. It is true, he said, that there are many land-locked sloughs filled with fish but he maintains that in the majority of the cases the sloughs are long and deep, permitting the fish to live.

The complaint was made to Congressman Esch by Deputy State Game Warden Arthur Holmes and Mr. Stroesser will confer with him on conditions in this vicinity and it is found to be necessary action
will be taken at once to free the fish
wherein they are imprisoned.

KANSAS LANDSLIDE WAS NO SURPRISE

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The result of the Kansas primaries did not surprise the members of the republican congressional campaign committee
was the assertion today of Congressman Henry Clay Loudenslager of New Jersey.

"Since I have been in congress,"
said Loudenslager, "there have been even been populist members from that state, so it isn't unusual that it should put up republican insurgents.
Kansas, you see, runs to 'isms' and it is no surprise that Murdock
and Madison and the other irregulars won out."

"Of course," he continued, "the republican congressional campaign
committee will assist the insurgents
if they ask assistance. We shall not force our aid upon them, but if they want republican literature
to circulate in their districts they will get all they want. We'll even furnish republican campaign literature to a democrat if we thought he'd use it."

Cannon Is Silent

MACKINAC ISLAND, Mich., Aug.
4.—Speaker Jos. G. Cannon of the national house, who is taking his annual period of recreation at this resort, does not intend to let the insurgent victories in the Kansas primaries or the Iowa republican convention disturb his rest.

The speaker was on an excursion
to a far point of the island yesterday
but today when told of the important political news he said:

"I have nothing to say at this vacation time regarding the primaries
in Kansas or the Iowa convention.
Perhaps, when the returns are all in,
I will have some statement. But there is one thing," continued Cannon, "primaries were also held in the states of Missouri and Oklahoma."

FAT MEN'S BALL TEAM HERE FRIDAY

Positively the richest treat of the sporting season in La Crosse this year will be pulled off at the League
park tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock when 640 pound "Baby"
Bliss and his fat men's team of Waterloo, Iowa, will play a game of baseball with the aggregation representing the local lodge of Elks.

It is doubtful if ever so unique an event
has ever been billed in the city and there is assurance that the park will be filled to capacity with friends of the Elks players and people who are curious to see the monstrous baseball team in action. The team comprises the largest group of fat men
from a standpoint of avoirdupois that has ever traveled together.

The fat men passed through the city this morning enroute to Winona
where they played this afternoon.
Each member of the team occupied a seat and most of them filled a seat with their huge bodies. It ought to be some game, featured with more kinds of baseball than the fan is privileged to see in a dozen games.

The lineup of the Elks' team has not been announced. The fat men will line up as follows: Bliss, shortstop;
Eldridge, first base; Capron, second base; Sheehan, shortstop; Holms, third base; Vorwald, pitcher; Hinds, catcher; Van Luven, left field; Kneel, captain; Brunell, right field.

THREE DAMS WILL RAISE BLACK RIVER

Progressive League Committee Decides that but Little Money is Needed
for Improvement

A committee of the North Side
Progressive league after spending the greater share of the afternoon
yesterday investigating the existing conditions at Hammond Chute, at Lytle's, decided to make a report to the proper authorities, stating that
but little money would be needed to reconstruct the old and worn out dams to maintain a flow of water in the Black river. They decided to recommend that prompt action be taken in repairing the dams. The party which made the trip in three automobiles consisted of George B.
Marvin, A. A. Gibson, Frank Pierce,
John Miller, Rev. Murphy, C. P.
Thompson and Louis La Vaque.

Mr. Marvin, when seen by The Tribune this morning, gave out the following interview. "We examined
the conditions closely and found that
but little money would be needed to repair the dams so that the water would be kept in the river. At Robert
A. Ladd's farm, the water is rushing through at a great rate, the bigger volume of the water going into the Mississippi while but a small amount stays in the Black river.
There are plenty of willows and much material there for the construction of the dams. The bottoms there are now nearly dry and we walked over several miles of them. We will recommend at the next meeting of the league that the matter be brought to the attention of the proper authorities and that three dams be built. This will be all that is needed to keep the water in the river and thus remedy some evil condition existing here. We are now trying to find out if government engineers
have the authority over this part of the river or whether it has been closed."

CRANE COLLECTS DATA ON LORIMER

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Senator Crane's mission to the west was for no other purpose than to ascertain for the information of President Taft the exact personal and political status of Senator Wm. Lorimer, according to a statement made today
by the Chicago Tribune.

The Tribune is the bitter enemy
of Senator Lorimer and exposed the alleged democratic vote buying,
whereby the republican senator was given his seat. According to the Tribune Senator Crane talked with 40 or 50 Chicago business men, bankers, financiers, and others regarding Lorimer and the bribery charges which the senatorial investigating committee is considering.

It declares to have from an unimpeachable source that Senator Crane carries back to Beverly, for where he left last night, a distinctly unfavorable report.

Incidentally Crane inquired as to Taft's chances in this territory in 1912, and was vitally interested to learn the effect upon public sentiment upon the return of Theodore Roosevelt.

MRS. ASTOR SILENT ON WEDDING PLANS

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Mrs. Ava
Willard Astor, divorced wife of John Jacob Astor, is herself authority that she is not to marry Lord Curzon, former viceroy of India, whose deceased wife was Miss Mary Lelter of Chicago. Mrs. Astor has arrived from London. She was met at the pier by her son Vincent Astor, who came down from Newport
on his father's new yacht, the Norma,
and her divorced husband's secretary. The reporters pointed out to her that these circumstances
bore out the rumors that she was to remarry Col. Astor.

She refused to discuss this and when asked whether she expected to go to Newport on the Norma, laughingly replied that she did not know.

LABOR DAY PLANS NOT YET FINISHED

All bargains do not come via
the "be-on-hand-at 9 a. m.
sales." The store that depends entirely upon "special sales" to attract customers misses in a great measure the fundamental principle of successful
store keeping.

The ethics and methods
that ordinarily control the policy of a store do not apply
in this business. The public generally know that this is true.

It's the local coloring, the atmosphere, the tangible, im-
palpable strong impression
that is felt but can scarcely be explained. It's FAITH, your complete faith in our ideas—
your confidence in the morale,
motif and merchandise of this

"Y" GIRLS AT Y. M. C. A. CAMP

Eighty People will Be at

ent Week

Announcement is made by Oliver
J. Ash, in charge of the summer "Y" camp up river that there is now 12
camping parties on the grounds in tents and cottages. The Y. M. C. A.
barges is being taken to the scene and the girls of the Y. W. C. A. will occupy this quarter, making a total of 80 campers at the camp. The "Y" tub
the launch of the camp, will make daily trips at 1:30, 6:30 and in the evening, and will return in the morning with those working in the city and desiring to camp nights.
There is fine swimming and good opportunity for basket picnics and Mr. Ash invites all friends to take advantage of the opportunity.

This will be the largest crowd at the camp since its establishment a few years ago.

DIST. SUPTS. OF M. E. CHURCH HERE

The district superintendents of the
M. E. church of Wisconsin met at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon at the
M. E. church, Eighth and King streets, for the purpose of outlining
the work for the coming year in this district.

The meeting is attended by the five presiding elders of the district
who are Rev. J. W. Irish, Ashland;
Rev. F. W. Straw, Eau Claire; E. C.
Dickson, Madison; Rev. F. A. Dauchop, Platteville, and the Rev. W.
H. Vance, La Crosse.

"This meeting," said the Rev.
Vance, "is merely an opportunity for the presiding elders to outline their work for the coming year. We will take up various matters connected with our work, suggest and adopt lines to work on during this year."

PETTIBONE PARK BECOMES POPULAR

That Pettibone park is becoming more and more popular as a picnic
ground, is evident from the increase
shown in the number of free bridge
passes issued by the board of public works. Up to this time the board has issued 7,991 passes, as against 6,500 last year. Hundreds of pic-nickers visit the park daily and this year more persons have taken advantage of the opportunity than ever before.

FOE OF DIRTY "ADS" IS HERE

C. W. Arnold, Minneapolis, known throughout the country for his aggressive campaign against "dirty"
advertising in newspapers, was in the city today and disbursed $800 circulars among business men, bearing reproductions of certain newspapers publishing unclean advertising.
Mr. Arnold compliments The Tribune which, he says, is the only La Crosse
paper free from this class of "unclean" advertising, and which is therefore fit to be read in the homes.

Mr. Arnold left the city today to continue his campaign against dirty
and suggestive medicine advertising
in other cities.

SCAVENGERS OUT EARLY AT NIGHT

Complaints have been made to Health Officer Murphy regarding the scavengers, who have been in the habit of starting out as early as 9:30 o'clock in the evening. Mr. Murphy says he has given orders not to start out before 10:30 or 11 o'clock
at night but owing to the fact that they have been overcrowded
with work they have been getting started a little earlier in the evening.
There is no ordinance covering this work, but the matter is left in charge of the health officer.

CALL A NATIONAL MINERS' CONVENTION

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 4.— President Tom L. Lewis yesterday announced that a call for a special national convention of miners
to be held in this city will be issued in the next two weeks.

This has become imperative Lewis
said because of the complications
that have developed in some districts
and also because of the methods used to deceive the mine workers of Illinois.

President Lewis said the purpose
of the national convention is to reveal to the miners the facts regarding his attitude toward the settlement of the 1910 strike. "I have no desire other than to protect the interests of mine workers of this country," he said. "The delegates will be astonished when they come to Indianapolis."

A Picnic

PIONEER FARMER DEAD; AGED 84

John Nagel, Father of Mrs.
M. Boma of This City,
Expires at His Minnesota Home

John Nagel, one of the pioneer
farmers of Winona county, died yesterday afternoon at his home on a farm where he has resided for the past 55 years. Decedent has been in poor health for some time and
during the past few weeks his condition grew worse and during the greater part of the time he was unconscious.

Decedent was born in Wittenburg, Germany, September 18, 1825, and came to this country in the early fifties, locating in Mormon Coulee,
where he worked in Gabel's brick yard for about three years. He then moved to Winona county, where he went on a farm, which has been his home ever since. Surviving are his widow and six children, John, Joseph, Genevieve and Pauline, living at home; Mrs. M. Boma, of this city and Mrs. Catherine Thiesing of the town of Hartford.

The funeral will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the La Crosse Catholic church and interment will be made in the Pine Creek cemetery.

CLOSED.

J. Bartel Co. will be closed all day Friday. Watch Friday's papers.

"SCOTLAND YARD" WAS SLOW TO ACT

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 4.—Miss Cecilia McCarthy, a member of the London Music Hall Ladies Guild,
who, with her two sisters, is appearing at a local theater, discussed steps taken by the guild to unravel
the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Mrs. H. H. Crippen in London last February.

"When Dr. Crippen told us many weeks after his wife's disappearance," she said, "that she had been in Los Angeles, we did not believe it, and we secured the evidence which finally induced the Scotland Yard men to investigate."

"I knew Belle Elmore Crippen
well. She was honorary treasurer
of our guild and worked hard,
refusing to accept a salary. On Feb.
3 our committee received a note purporting to have come from her stating that she had received a cable
asking her to leave for America
and that we had better elect another treasurer as she would remain in this country a long time. Early in April Crippen attended a benevolent fund dance with Miss Leneve.
She was wearing Belle's diamonds
and we were all shocked and suspicious."

"Finally we wrote to Los Angeles,
inquiring whether Belle had died
there and were notified that there was no such record. Before we heard from Los Angeles, however,
we asked Scotland Yard to take up the matter, but that organization declined to do so until Los Angeles reported. If Scotland Yard had acted earlier Crippen would have been arrested much sooner and the long expensive pursuit which has just ended would have been averted."

PUTS DOWN MUTINY ON LAKE VESSEL

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—"Pipe all hands to quell mutiny," was the dread order heard by five frightened
girls covering behind locked cabin
doors of the good old boat Douglas Houghton, sailing the high seas of Lake Michigan.

"What?" roared "Fighting John"
Parke, captain of the aforementioned good ship. "Do I behold mutiny with helpless women aboard? Stand back, ye blatherskiting sons of tinkers, or
blast my blooming wireless ariels I'll swing ye from the yardarm, or some similar handy place."

All this realistic, melodramatic
"business" was pulled off just as the Houghton made Chicago from mid-lake and all because Captain Parke ordered the arrest of a sailor who indiscreetly smashed furniture.

His fellow workers refused to obey the order. Their belligerent attitude frightened the five young relatives of officials of the steel corporation who were taking a pleasure trip. The mutiny was quelled with a business-appearing revolver and today the men will face a United States judge.

INVESTIGATE FATAL TENEMENT FIRE

HOBOKEN, N. J., Aug. 4.—A rigorous investigation to determine the cause of a fire that wiped out an entire family, mortally injured a rescuer and seriously injured a mother and two children, was begun
today. The blaze swept a three story tenement last night. Louis and Marie Blasetti and their two sons were penned in their rooms on the second floor and burned to death. Oscar Aices, a volunteer fireman, who tried to force his way to their aid inhaled gas and flames and will probably die.

Mrs. Rapetti Labella, after her husband had fled, leaving her and her two children in their blazing rooms, endeavored to carry the little ones out, but fell unconscious in the path of the flames. She and her children were rescued by firemen.

TO EXTRADITE CHARLTON

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 4.—
The first step in the extradition of Porter Charlton to Italy was taken
this afternoon when the Italian government sent to the state department
the papers setting forth the facts in the case against Charlton. This was preliminary to a request for

SOX FANS WANT WHITE AT HELM

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—A petition is being circulated today by the "Jones club," composed of White Sox rooters, boosting Doc. White, the pitcher, for manager of the club. It is a "red ink" petition, too, designed to impress on President Comiskey that a change in management would delight the rooters and bring the pennant winners back into the game. It also conveys the information that Fielder Jones can be secured if a reasonable proposition is made. The document will be presented to Comiskey today.

Epertly leaped from the car and grasped the wire to pull it away from the woman. He caught the full force of the current and fell dead. The woman escaped injury. Meyers was shocked into unconsciousness.

RACING GAME NEAR DEATH IN NEW YORK

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 4.—Horsemen who are gathered here for the opening of the Saratoga track today say that although all New York is about to be closed to the racing game there will be almost continuous racing within easy reach of the state. It will be a case of "everything going out and nothing coming in," they say, "for we are bound to have racing."

Saratoga will end the racing game in New York but from here it is probable the horsemen will go to Fort Erie, across from Buffalo, for a six day meet.

Montreal will then open for seven days from September 10 to 17 after which, in addition to the old advantages in Canada, the New Marlborough track in Maryland, will open a week later, for a 20 day meet.

Fimlico is booked for an early meeting in October, while the Kentucky tracks, Lexington, Louisville and Latonia, will furnish plenty of sport.

PIE EATING BOUT DELAYS DIPLOMA

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Aug. 4.—A pie-eating contest is holding up the diploma of Midshipman Herbert O. Roesch, of Oregon, the champion rifle shot of the country. Roesch should have received his diploma in June. Roesch umpired the pie consuming contest, which was participated in by fourth classmen at the table over which Roesch presided.
